Thursday, 15 June

17.00: Excursion in Chianalea of Scilla

Scilla is one of the most romantic places of the Tyrrhenian coast of Calabria. Country of ancient origins, confused between mythology, history and legend.

Scilla is one of the most popular holiday destinations of Calabria, for its sea and for the wonderful view.

Scilla is positioned around the Castle of Ruffo of Calabria. From the top of the Castle you can enjoy for the view of the Aeolian Islands and the Sicilian coast.

Chianalea, the ancient village of fishermen, is composed of narrow streets passable only by foot, with the houses built immediately behind the sea. Strolling through the charming streets it's easy to meet fishermen preparing for the traditional fisheries of swordfish.

Thursday, 15 June

17.00: Social dinner

This restaurant is located in a characteristic late 20th century Chianalea seafront building that overlooks the sea.

Saturday, 15 June

15.00: Visit to "National Museum of Magna Grecia"

The Museo Nazionale della Magna Grecia (National Museum of Magna Græcia), located in Palazzo Piacentini, is a museum in Reggio Calabria, southern Italy, housing the most important archaeological collection from sites in Magna Graecia.
